Workers of colour, GLBT, Aboriginal and workers with disabilities

BCGEU Equity Roundtable Network meeting

THE BCGEU HAS FORMED a series of networks of equity-seeking groups. BCGEU members who identify as Aboriginal workers, workers of colour, gay/lesbian/bisexual/transgendered workers or workers with disabilities are invited to join the BCGEU equity officer for dinner on Sept. 9 in Prince George.

Here's your opportunity to become part of the network.

Agenda items include:

- issues of importance to equity members related to the upcoming municipal, provincial and federal elections;
- opportunities to make a difference in our communities and workplaces;
- ways to engage members in our struggle;
- update on the union's work around equity and human rights, including plans for a fall conference.

RSVP required. Please respond by August 29, 2008 if a Leave of Absence is required, and by Sept. 3, if attending. Expenses can be claimed as per union policy. Please let us know if you have any special dietary requirements.

Contact:
Laura Gibbons at 1-800-663-1674 ext. 220,
